EVERY Federal office holder in Kentucky is being drummed for contributions to the campaign fund. These duns are sent out on official paper, with the full knowledge of the various collectors and post-masters and yet no protest is filed by the Civil Service Commissioners. When Hanna landed hundreds of thousands of dollars were dumped into Kentucky to fill the pockets of corrupt voters and the empty vaults of alleged independent newspapers. But it is poor picking this year and the cry for boodle is as fearsome as the yelp of hungry wolves on the hill-side.

BEFORE the campaign opened Roosevelt had something to say on every conceivable dry spell. Now he is as silent as the men the freight train ran over. You couldn't blow an opinion out of him with a shell of dynamite. There is only one key to the pad-lock which has closed Teddy's strenuous jaw and the National Committee has thrown that key away.

KENTUCKY Democrats were never more united or more confident. The questions that split them into factions have been settled forever.

Packed Houses.

The Depew-Burdette Stock Co. opened a week's engagement at the Grand Monday night. The opening bill was the "The Senator from Kentucky," a comedy drama in four acts. Mr. Thos. E. DePew, as the Senator, and Mr. W. T. Burdette as the Englishman, kept the audience laughing all of the time. The scenery and costumes were beautiful. The bill for Tuesday night was a play of Western life called "In Arizona." Mr. DePew as the country boy scored a big hit.

Another large audience greeted the company Wednesday night to witness "The Lights of Gotham," a new play with all special scenery, which gave entire satisfaction. This company is an excellent one and the scenery and costumes are the most elaborate ever seen here with a popular priced attraction.

The specialties are all good. Miss Minnie Dupree in buck and wing dancing, Mr. Frank E. Lynch in ragtime singing and dancing and Miss Napp in Spanish dancing all scored big hits. Mr. C. H. Breene with his Kalichnoscope delighted the audience with his moving pictures.

Mr. Thos. L. Brower and Mr. George Word in illustrated songs won great applause. The bill for to-night will be that grand old play of "Rip Van Winkle" with Mr. DePew in the title role, with all special scenery and electrical effects.

Saturday matinee the bill will be "Little Red Riding Hood", a play for the children.

SPECIAL SALE CONTINUED.—We have decided to continue our special sale for several days longer, in order to entirely clean up our stock to make room for Fall and Winter shoes. If you want shoes at a bargain, call now.

To Try the New Law.

The City Council of Versailles passed a resolution requiring the City Attorney to prepare an ordinance in conformity with Section 129, chapter 53, of the acts of the last Legislature providing that cities of the fourth class may pass an ordinance to the effect that negroes be taxed their pro rata to pay for the maintenance of the colored schools, and whites their pro rata to pay for the white schools. Versailles is the first town to take such action and the outcome will be awaited with interest. Heretofore the burden of maintaining both white and colored schools has fallen almost entirely upon the white people and in separating the school funds in this manner it is felt the burden will be considerably lessened. It is not yet known whether the blacks will test the constitutionality of the law when the City Council passes the ordinance in conformity with it.

The Scabbard Is Off.

Detectives L. P. Colleran and W. E. Burke, of Chicago, who have been engaged by Jim Mulligan to make an investigation in the mystery surrounding the attempt to poison the family of Judge James H. Mulligan, for which crime young Mulligan has been accused by Lewis Mitchell, are in Lexington to continue the investigation. Detective Burke spent the entire day Tuesday in watching the different members of Judge Mulligan's family as they went to and from the grand jury room. This very much incensed the judge and brought forth the following statement from him:

"I have stood the slander from this sort of a son as long as I can, and from now on the scabbard is off, and it is war to the knife. I give warning to all, whether they be snide lawyers or detectives, that if they invent any slander on my wife or any member of my family I will avenge it with life's blood, and if I am killed in the attempt to protect the good name of my wife I will leave others behind to avenge my death."

LATER.—The grand jury brought in an indictment against Lewis Mitchell charging "maliciously attempting to poison." It further reported to the court that there was no evidence to convict anyone else with the crime.
